

The Redemption of Humanity

Prayer before the Crucifix for the salvation and redemption of the human race

Prayer composed by Oscar Lepore (mystic) by the will of Jesus.

Prayer for the Redemption of Humanity, for the conversion of the world, the salvation of souls, the sanctification of the Church, to which Jesus adds these promises:

- For this prayer you will save many souls (thousands) each time you say it and many will be the people benefited by this prayer;
- You will have a better personal world as you say it over time. You will then have a beautiful Paradise improved according to what you pray this prayer;
- The world will be changed by Me for the better and you will be considered collaborators of a better world;
- Not that those who do not pray will be lost, but certain and safe will be the salvation of those who have valued it often in their spiritual journey reciting it with love (Jesus told me that 30/40 times enough to secure the promise);
- Mary will be your spiritual life companion if you will often pray this prayer, and will lead you to high peaks of contemplation and will take care of your sanctification.
- Who will make this prayer known to some people will have a beautiful eternal reward. Who will make known to many will have a huge prize that will make him happy forever.

Sign of the Cross. In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Home

I walk up the streets full of stones and dirt, following a furrow traced by something that was very heavy, accompanied by drops of blood that wet the ground. I proceed among men and women of all kinds. People who cry, sob and beat their breasts, depressed and desolate people, and people who laugh evil and rejoice. The climb is not easy, but I reach the summit, where there is a painful but also majestic sight before me. Three crosses, three crucified persons. One good, one bad, and one that leaves me dismayed by saying from the top of the Cross: "Father, forgive them for not knowing what they are doing"! It is a person who catches my gaze, a man who manifests a Divine Love that makes you fall in love. At His feet a woman, His mother, who cries and prays before the Son who is making all things new, personally paying the ransom of a new Humanity, of a Humanity that deserves to be exited from the Creator Hands of a God who it is Love, Truth, Wisdom, True Life.

I approach her, the Co-Redeemer, and together with her and your faithful disciples I pray that your Divine Blood may not be in vain for many. You want this Your sacrifice, together with that of Your Most Holy Mother, is worth for the salvation of all humanity, and you want us to help you bring to fruition your glorious offering that shows what Love knows how to come to love God.

Contemplate Your Wounds, Your Most Precious Blood. Your sufferings have been many and serious. You have been insulted, mocked, cursed, treated like a madman, scourged, crowned with thorns, tortured under the weight of a cross loaded with the sins of all of us, whom you brought under a burning sun, and then nailed hands and feet to this Cross, and raised to embrace Heaven and Earth to unite them and reconcile them together, paying for your blood and your body full of pain and agony this ransom.

Now let us, oh dear Jesus Christ, our Lord and Lord of Heaven and of the Earth and sea and all that they contain, allow me to value and bring to fruition your precious gift, with which all the true gifts that last in eternal, and to make it a pivot on which to lift the whole world, towards the High, towards Paradise, towards Divine Love, true, truthful that in itself contains the fulfillment of the purpose in which to recapitulate Creation. Since Love you are and Love we have to become, recognizing the Triune Creator of every beauty, of every good thing.

Have mercy on us and forgive us, for we are beings without intelligence of True Love, of the Truthful Salvation, of the Wisdom of the Heart, of the Faith Viva and Vera, and as such we are incapable of understanding the life of Paradise which could be part of our earthly lives, if only conversion made us understand the way to understand the Life of the Sons of God. Forgive us, give us the grace of repenting of heart, of recognizing our sins, of asking for forgiveness and of forgiving in our turn, like us we want to be forgiven. Love us, wash us with your Blood, bring us to the confessional to unload the burdens of sin and be healed and resurrected by You, by virtue of Your Sacrifice of Love for us, by virtue of Your most precious Blood that purifies our souls from guilt and from the punishment.

I offer you together with Heaven the sufferings of today's humanity, and also those of the past and of the future, because always in the hands of you Trinity, through the intercession of Mary, united in Your Passion and in the Corredenzione of Mary, they are worth for the Redemption, Salvation, Sanctification of Humanity.

Rapture our hearts with your gaze. Heal us from the hypocrisy of a sick world. Take us in search of a more noble and great and true life. Do not allow us to be content with a life without Love, without Wisdom, without Truth, without Faith. Fill our minds and hearts with our Spirit of prayer, raising us from the dying state of life without Faith. Earn us with Your Blood and with Your Love. The sufferings and merits of humanity are a help to allow you to come into our hearts and change our thinking into Christian thought and Christian feelings.

I offer the merits of Your humble incarnation and hidden life in Nazareth together with Mary and Joseph, asking you to turn away for these merits men from the pursuit of greatness and fame, pomp and excesses. Bring them to look at the small things of life with new eyes, to see the good and holy things that help to give flavor to life, to see the search for meaning of living in the value of those things that appear humble but are in truth the things that fill the heart. Help men to seek their growth and maturation by going to the important things in life, in the search for the precious in what nourishes daily the heart of beautiful, true, holy, wise, good things. Help, or Holy Family, families to love each other, to live happily together, to be united, to pray together, to love life together. Help people to grow well in their family and become the men they should be if the family were a cradle of holiness and true values.

In your childhood for two years you spent exiles in Egypt, far from their country, to escape a tyrant who feared for their power. Accept the merits and sufferings of those who have lost a dignified life without fault, along with yours. Impetrate for all the desire of the blissful Homeland of Paradise, the detachment from the world and its vain spirit, the seeking in You the answer to "Who am I? Where do I come from? Where am I going?". It gives the awareness of being exiles from the blessed port of Eternal Life and gives the awareness that God is the answer, and that Paradise is the most true desire there is, and that everything that exists in life is secondary to this. Donate to be liberated from idols and false ideologies and pagan religions and science that do not satisfy the thirst for the infinite that is in our hearts, or that quench it with impure waters. May they return to you and to your gospel! Come and tell us the truth, then. Give us the Living Water of true Life in God, of the Knowledge of what truly counts for the Eternal Life we all have and for which few think about getting busy.

You worked humbly as a carpenter with Joseph all your life, praying and offering for us your daily days and labors, and Mother Tua was always active in daily work, while she prayed with so much love that she fell in love with Heaven. I offer you together with Heaven the merits of work of Humanity, to be united with Your own. Accept the many good and hard crosses that men have accumulated in their lives with daily work, and valorize them for the redemption, salvation and sanctification of humanity. Impetrate men to love work, love to do holy things, things of value, good things, to serve the common good, to help others, to earn honestly to live, to work for a better world. Impetrate the spirit of prayer so that while men work, the work will purify them, redeem them, sanctify them, transform them inwardly, and make them grow as men and as saints, by virtue of their merits offered to you. Help Christians and the sick learn how to offer their daily labors and sufferings for Your Kingdom, and make the daily sufferings of life bear fruit for the needs of the salvation of souls. Mary, helps women who have housework duties to perform their duties by being with Jesus, praying and loving the life given by God in a spirit of prayer, without crying crosses but with positive faith.

Jesus, you received the baptism in the Jordan, the Holy Spirit came down on You, and you made penance fasting for forty days in the desert, while the sanctification necessary for Your Mission was completed.

Give to Priests, Consecrated Persons and Christians, to keep themselves always alive and active in the practice of the Faith, in the practice of the many things that our faith offers us. Infuse the search for sanctification, assiduous prayer, especially the Rosary so much sanctifying, to vivify their communion with God. Give them to live fully their dedication to the glory of God, in search of Truth, the salvation of souls, to live in the love of God and in the risen one, their daily life and commitments. I offer you together with Heaven the merits of holiness, chastity, poverty and obedience of your consecrated men and of Christians, so that united with those of Thy Mother and of Your Mother they are worthy of the sanctity of the Church and of the redemption of Humanity. Humanity seeks the true values of life and detaches itself from what is ephemeral and does not last long. Accept the merits of the ascetics and put in men the search for the Light of Life, of what gives true value to our lives. Put the search for True Love in our hearts, in our minds, in our actions, thoughts, words, deeds and actions. Impetra for all the search for Truth, and to the artists allow them to work for the good of hearts and souls by collaborating with spiritually valid works to a better world.

He began Your Life narrated in the Gospels, with miracles, wonders and exorcisms, accompanied by the assiduous prayer of your Mother who spiritually accompanied Your redemptive work of Humanity. Help the world and the Church to know and recognize the miracles of God of now and of the past, so that the world may believe in the supernatural of God through Christ, and that the Church may grow strengthened in faith. Your Word is a Word that nourishes, that consoles, that heals, that healthy, that transforms. Your Word turns away from the common world often sterile and vain, and introduces to a True Life, that of the Sons of God. For the merits of You and the Holy Preachers of all time united to You, to the Blood and the glorious death of the Martyrs offered to you, give to the Priests and to the Church a Word and Knowledge that is alive, efficacious, salvific, truthful, holy, rich, that leads to salvation, to Heaven and to His Glory. Do not let us Christians live poor in spiritual riches. Come with Your Word that brings all the gifts, come into our tongues, our hearts, our minds, educate our souls, and bring us to the whole Truth, so that our Christian life may be rich and fascinating for the world. Donate us to bring to fruition Your words and teachings, and to live the holy evangelical counsels in an honest and truthful way. Give the Church not to deviate from the Word of the Holy Scriptures and from the Christian Tradition and from the Common Catechism of the Catholic Church, not abandoning the Truth by running behind heresies and falsifications of what is the correct teaching of the road to Heaven. It gives courage to priests and Christians to speak about the truths that have always been part of the dogmas of the Catholic faith, not to delude oneself behind the modernization or falsification of a truth that can sometimes cause annoyance. Let the Priests speak of hell, purgatory, Paradise; of Eucharist true Body and Blood of Christ to honor worthily and holily; of sacramental confession of sins; of ardent prayer; of the Rosary a most powerful weapon against evil and the devil, a weapon that brings immensity of grace and grace; of devotion to Mary and to the Saints and to the Angels; of eternal life; of practical practice of faith; of charity to the poor; to witness to one's faith in Christ and to evangelize; to actively live the faith in the Risen Christ with praise and love for You and Heaven. Let them not be priests for four parish works but be holily alive and active in working for the Kingdom of God with great effort. This is their vocation, these are the Priests we wish to give us. Let Christians willingly and fearlessly live the testimony of their faith in you, who are proud of it and not ashamed of the world.

You were condemned by envious, hypocritical, false people, who thought only of their own earthly glory and wealth. So many are the innocents condemned by this false world in its values. Accept the sufferings of those who are condemned by the world unjustly. Accept the sacrifice of many abortive innocent children in the wombs of their mothers, give them baptism and introduce them to Paradise, and use these their sufferings and those of many martyrs killed without justice for the repentance of sinners, for the conversion of the world. Bring the world and men to repentance, repentance, conversion. It brings to the penitence, to the confession of one's own sins this Humanity. Bring the world to higher values of life and despise what is not holy, that is not true, that is not good, that is not right. Humble the world on its values based on appearance and power and wealth and success, and lead them to discover values based on being, on good works, on goodness and charity, on sanctification, on humility, on feelings of value. Do not allow men to glorify what is wicked. Only the true values of life must be valued. He is God One and Triune He who is to be worshiped.

Your scourging and the spilled Blood turn off the brutality and animality of men, extinguish the passions of hatred, of wickedness, of violence. The instincts of a sexual life turn off without real feelings. It helps men to develop love for kindness, for goodness, for charity, for doing good to others, for wanting the good of others, for not being bad and arrogant and taking advantage of others by subduing them. That men know how to understand that without Love that unites us together we can not be happy, because Love leads to happiness, together ... but hatred leads only to divisions and a handful of flies. It dampens the dirty and disordered feelings of men towards the search for True Love, of pure love, of not losing the meaning of life in thinking only of the disordered search for sexual pleasure. Your Blood quenches and purifies men from disordered feelings and passions that are not subjected to the Will of God and to God's constituted Order on how life should be regulated between men and women. Give women, couples, love motherhood when it presents itself, and renounce killing children with abortion, because it is a thing of horrible malice without feeling.

You have been dressed in a joke, crowned with thorns, dressed in purple and given a reed as a scepter. But you are the One who reigns over Humanity and who by Your merits want to clothe it with true royal dignity, with the crown of the Virtues. How many Christians feel like you, in a world that does not care about our princes, our moral values, our way of thinking and understanding life. We are participants with You in a world that does not understand the regal value of our way of thinking, which You have given us. We offer you this, and offering it to you I ask you to reign over this world, to exorcise and to keep under your power the great of this world, those who govern and govern peoples, so that they deign to behave like Heaven commands, and not they make their power a ridiculous service to the power of the underworld and the devil, with which they could bring so many souls to damnation. See to revive their faith and reconstitute their conscience to civil and moral and religious values, which fear to offend God with blasphemous and contrary to the Divine Law which they should give an account of their judgment. Help the artists and the great to develop a culture according to your ideals and desires, having at heart to give good things to men, so that in society, in the masses, a culture that develops human and spiritual wealth of men will reign as much as possible. Redeem me for Your crown of thorns men from what makes their thought ugly and underdevelop it, help them to have noble and holy thoughts, virtuous, to cultivate what is noble, just, holy.

You have been convicted in place of a malefactor released free. I offer you together with Heaven the great little condemnations that Christians and good and just always live until Your Kingdom comes. You, O Christ of God, have accepted on you condemnation because we, evildoers because we have sinned, were exonerated by eternal condemnation and reconciled to Heaven. You are the one who paid our salvation with His life and blood. Give all the men you can to be exonerated from damnation, to be repentant, washed with your blood and absolve yourself in your personal judgment. Help the dying to get to the meeting with you, at least with sincere and profound repentance, and if possible make sacramental confession, Eucharistic communion and receive the sacrament of extreme unction. Have no judgment of condemnation on them, as far as possible, Lord, since they can pay you their faults even with Purgatory and with so much gratitude, and there is no advantage from the loss of a precious human life.

Your Holy Face is ruined in His divine beauty by so many beatings and bruises, by the thorns that even an eye have blinded you. But You are the One who heals the beauty of the Sons of God disfigured by sin and by so many impure passions that are not born of Love. You heal the face of God in our consciences and souls and bring back the order and inner beauty in them. You reconcile us with the divine image imprinted on us and lead us to be looked at with Love from Heaven. I offer you these sufferings and the sufferings of Christians of all times despised and criticized and ridiculed by a world that does not understand the value of justice and holiness. Lift up the eyes of men to Heaven! Wake up their hearts on what is the true eternal desire, or Paradise! It leads sinners to repentance and repentance and conversion to realize that they are disfigured by sin and have lost the dignity of true human beings who come from the proper act and talk.

Loaded by the Cross weighed down by our sins You ascend Calvary. In You we enclose the path of Humanity to Paradise, to the Resurrection, because You have said "Whoever wants to come after Me, denies himself (his egoism and ego), takes his cross every day and follows Me" ( Lk 9, 23) . Therefore it helps us men to walk behind you with the crosses that the Father has arranged for each one of us, each according to the Plan and Plan of Life thought by the Father for each one of us. Together with Heaven I offer you Trinity, through the intercession of Mary, our having often traveled the path of Calvary, some more, some less, because You unite it to Yourself and value it for the salvation, redemption and sanctification of Humanity. Accept together with the Father and the Holy Spirit the crosses worthy of honor of all humanity, past present and future, and valorize them according to your desires. Let there be many Simon Cyreneus who help you to carry the Cross, with the work of corredentori, and many Veronica who cleanse the Holy Face soiled by suffering, and who give you a drink, making you a repairer and consolation. So are the consecrated ones, and so many are the pious women who beat their breasts for you and for the conversion of sinners, with their pious practice of faith and their wise and wise intercession.

You have been placed on the Cross of the True Love of God towards men, Crucified to embrace all in the Name of God, or Lord of Glory. Your hands and feet have been pierced with nails. Nail the men from knowing how to do so many evil deeds and from walking on so many dark streets. I offer you the holy works and the good ways of many Christians and good people of all time, unite them to you, and invite men not to separate from you by going to bad and empty things and to discover the beauty of the works and the ways of Light, immersed in the Love of God. Give your Sons to live the ways and deeds of Divine Love, of the Truth of Salvation, of the Wisdom of the heart, of the living and true Faith. Gives to know, understand, assimilate and make the Gospel and its teachings. You gave us the feasible Divine Utopia of a heavenly world, through the Gospel, and then give us to put these teachings into practice. Make us meek and humble, kind, good, ready to forgive and turn the other cheek, to defeat evil with good. Make us pray well and much, let us grow in meditation and in contemplation of the mysteries of life and faith. Let us do good in the family, to acquaintances, relatives, the poor, the strangers, the good and the bad. Give us alms. Let us deeply forgive everyone. Make us pray and intercede for everyone. Make us develop the Knowledge of God and His things. Put concrete and active interest in knowing and understanding and understanding the Bible, and putting good things learned into practice. Let us bear witness to our faith, make us evangelize for the good and the salvation of many. Make us grow in Love, in Wisdom, in Truth, in Faith. Make us better men than we were, as our lives go on. Help us to grow and mature as men and women that we can truly say "Sons of God".

Agonizing on the Cross, between spasms, suffering, pain, fever and agony, the faint of Your Blood, You die with a loud cry. Enclose our lives in wanting to get prepared for the moment of our death, of our departure from this world. We offer you the death of so many martyrs and of many Christian saints, we offer you the preparation of them to such moment to unite to your agony on the Cross, so that to all gifts the feeling of wanting to arrive well at the moment of death in the grace of God and of want to prepare, knowing that one day this earthly life will end and you will have to go through the Judgment of God. Donate to be taken at the right time for our salvation to as many as possible, or at least prepare in time when you know that we lack a little time. Have mercy on our lives and our salvation, because you know that we are precious and have a personal value in the eyes of God, each of us, even if defective and guilty in many things. So, however honest and possible, we beg you to try to procure for all salvation and eternal life, because we have cost the blood of you God, and the life offered of a God made man is too much for you to want your blood so much very precious has been scattered in vain. We know that not all men are worthy of Salvation, but if you believe they can reward you with eternal gratitude and praise and work and love, have mercy on them as much as possible.

Now dead, you are wounded by the lance in your chest and your Sacred Heart is also opened. In it Heart enclose us men, accoglian in You, take us and make us children of Divine Love. You are the Love True perfect and made person, which is the longed for desire that every man does research, knowingly or unknowingly. So help us to discover Your Divine Love, True, Truthful, and to recognize it in You, in the Father, in the Holy Spirit, in Mary, in Heaven that wants us and that loves us with immense love. It helps men of all kinds to recognize you and to bear witness to having recognized you, both young and old. After helping us to discover Divine Love through You, help us to transmit it to others, to the world around us, becoming an icon of Paradise, a window on Paradise for those around us, for the world. Grant us to be a living image of the world that you propose to men, so that they may fall in love and realize that there is a better and eternal life.

Your Holy Masses every day continue Your work of redemption and salvation and sanctification of humanity. Give to men to participate with reverence and veneration, devoutly making Communion on their knees and on their tongue, aware of the value of this sacred act, confessed and in the grace of God. We offer You Holy Masses every day and Eucharistic communion made by so many Christians, and together with Your sacrifice, the sufferings of the humanity of now and of the past and of the future, in reparation, forgiveness and expiation of the sins of humanity, and for its redemption and salvation; for the intentions, will, projects and works of You Trinity and of Our Lady; in thanksgiving for what you do and give for our eternal life together with you and for Heaven forever.

Merciful Father, together with Heaven, in union with the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer you all the sufferings and merits of work, of good will, of the cross, of all men of all time, to be united Passion, Death and Resurrection of Jesus and Mary's Corredemption, so that the Will of God may be done on earth and carried out in the hearts of men; May the Kingdom of Heaven, Faith and Spirit of Prayer, True Love and Charity, Wisdom and Truth come to them (I also remember the artists and politicians and the great, who have so much power to create a beautiful society) ; and why Christians have so much of the Spirit of prayer, wisdom, science, power of prayer, a species centered on the Passion of Jesus and the Rosary of Mary, praise and thanksgiving, and through their intercession are instruments of conversion and salvation of souls , of Humanity, of a better world and of the sanctification of the Church.

Your most holy Mother keeps you on your knees, weeping desolate on your lifeless body. She lived on you, you were her life, her sense of life. She was prepared for the redemption of the human race that You would have operated. She was prepared for what she was supposed to see. He has spent all his life preparing himself, like you. He knows of your next Resurrection, but it is the Mother who cries His beloved Son. She with Her Love and Her tears for You and for all of us is the perfect reparator, the perfect worshiper, the perfect praying virgin who shows us the path of heroic virtues and of Holiness. Mary, wash our souls with your tears of salvation so that God may have mercy and mercy on us now and at the moment of our death. Mary, also helps us to be in the wake of a constant prayer, of a life in which everything we do is prayer offered to the Trinity through adoration to God and through intercession for others. Give us to always contemplate Jesus Christ in daily life and adore him, repair him, console him, love him, giving him our company and our life, as far as we can. Be our door of access to Jesus, and help us to love him with the sentiments of Your Immaculate Heart to whom I consecrate myself, the world, and all men. Donate us to grow with you in the Spirit of prayer, in the wisdom of prayer, in the science of prayer, in the power of prayer. Grant us to be useful to the world through our intercessory prayer. Grant us to always have faith in His Resurrection and His victory over evil, on the devil, on death, on the world, on sin and on flesh, because you suffered so much to remain faithful and faithful to His promises of Resurrection. Give us sure faith in the victory of Jesus over all evil. To Your Immaculate Heart I offer the whole of Humanity, because in Your Triumph Humanity is the property of the Trinity through You who are the immaculate key of the Heart of God. Your merits of Corredentrice of the world are always in the eyes of God, together with those of the Saints, of the Angels, of the martyrs, of the blessed and of true Christians, so that Humanity may always be full of that Life which ferments as a leaven the pulp of Humanity to make of good bread of rich taste in the eyes of God. They intercede for men and enrich them according to their characteristics and virtues, and take care of the spiritual growth of men by acting as patron saints according to God's plans for each creature.

Conclusion

A sphere of glorious Light powerfully arrives on a sepulcher closed by a boulder, enters and feels an earthquake that makes the soldiers escape. A mighty and luminous angel appears from Heaven descending and rolling away the stone. I wait a few minutes in intense and deep silence, anxious to know what happens.

And here it is that Christ appears at the door, glorious, in full and healthy life! Risen! It is alive and strong, alive and beautiful! I bow down and worship, praising and blessing ...

Here is the good shepherd who loved his sheep so much to give His life for them! He has fulfilled liberation from a life without beatific vision of God and without Paradise! Men of all times have had thanks to him the liberation from exile and now they can live happily in the paradisiac wonders! Death has been won, the Victory of Good over evil has come to His fulfillment in Jesus of Nazareth! Bright as the Sun, his wounds transformed into glorious vision that enriches His Divine Body, He gives us the ability to believe in a better and eternal Life that will never end! He gives to believe in a resurrection in which our inner beauty and our works before God will be transformed into a marvelous future with the glory of an incorruptible and glorified body, in a life full of splendor!

" " The Lamb that was slain is worthy to receive power and wealth, wisdom and strength, honor, glory and blessing. " All the creatures of heaven and earth, under the earth and in the sea and all the things contained therein, heard that they said: "To Him who sits on the throne and to the Lamb praise, honor, glory and power, forever and ever" . " (Ap 5, 12-13); " " You are worthy, O Lord and our God, to receive glory, honor and power, because you have created all things, and by your will they were created and subsisted ". " (Ap 4, 11) .

Now in You I want to hope, O our Savior, and I ask You that we Humanities are brought to You to fulfill Your promises, so that we bring our lives back into Your hands and You be the great Gift of God that leads us to be more and more live, ever more real, ever more holy, in order to be able to enjoy with you the true Kingdom of Divine and eternal Love, which will be our real achievement of the realization of our lives, and of which we will be grateful in words and in works You, to the Father and to the Holy Spirit forever, with Mary our Queen! Amen!

From <http://www.potenzadellacroce.it> where there are numerous mystical and Christian faith contents suitable for a rich Christian spiritual journey together with God.